UDI Visiting Fellow Program with University of Technology Sydney

UTS School of Communication hosts outstanding MA, PhD students and early career researchers from Ukraine, who wish to spend a short period of time at the Ukraine Democracy Initiative within School of Communication, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. They are able to work on their research projects and discuss their work with UDI and UTS researchers at School of Communication seminars, research events and engage with higher degree research students. Fellows are welcome to participate in the academic activities of the Faculty and UTS.

About The Program

The Ukraine Democracy Initiative (UDI) Visiting Fellow Program enables research students at MA, PhD levels and early career researchers from UTS's Ukrainian partner universities to travel to Sydney to collaborate on projects of mutual interest with UTS academics. Visitors appointed under this program are provided with up to AUD $6,000 (depending on the length of their visit) to be used for travel, accommodation, and living expenses during their stay. The hosting School of Communication will provide suitable space and facilities.

The academic visits under this program are intended to further research collaboration in the area of Ukrainian studies and broader communications studies:

- Politics, society and the environment
- Branding, PR and industry evaluation
- Journalism and communication
- Digital and social media, screen and sound studies
- History and creative Writing

The Main Ukrainian Partner Universities:

- Kyiv National Taras Shevchenko University (KNU) (Kyiv, Ukraine)
www.univ.kiev.ua

Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv is Ukraine's top university. KNU is ranked within top 500 Universities in the world. It is the third oldest university in Ukraine after the University of Lviv and University of Kharkiv. Currently, its structure consists of fifteen faculties (academic departments) and five institutes. At present, the student body of Taras Shevchenko University totals about < 30,000 students.

- National Academy for Public Administration under the President of Ukraine (Kyiv, Ukraine)
www.academy.gov.ua

The National Academy for Public Administration under the President of Ukraine is the main state higher educational establishment in Ukraine for preparation, over-preparation and improvement of qualification of state service personnel and officials of local self-administration. It was founded in 1995 as the Ukrainian Academy of State Administration.

Program Objectives:

The program's objective is to provide opportunities for long-term research engagement between UTS and Ukraine partner universities.

MA, PhD students and early career academics participating in the UDI Visiting Fellow program are expected to:

- Publish a paper in a peer reviewed journal within 12 months
 - Present at public seminar/lecture at UTS
 - Give a seminar/talk for Ukrainian community
 - Present at a conference within 12 months
 - Broaden collaborative connections with other academics at UTS

Duration of Stay:

Appointments are generally expected to be around 2 months in duration. If funding is sought for a period shorter or longer than this, a clear explanation should be included with the proposed visit time. Visitors must be in residence for at least 75% of their appointment.

Program Guidelines:

Visiting fellows and UTS host academics are required to read and abide by the UDI Visiting Fellow Program Guidelines. This document contains important information about the Australian visa, invitation letter, health insurance, travel expenses, airfares and accommodation for visiting fellows. It also includes a step by step checklist to guide visiting fellows and UTS host academics through the steps involved before, during and after the visit.

UDI Visiting Fellow Program Guidelines - See Link Below

The UDI team and/or their host faculty will advise visiting fellows on where to find suitable accommodation during their stay at UTS. It is expected that visiting fellows will reside in the vicinity of Broadway or another area close to UTS during the fellowship period and will participate fully in the itinerary prepared by their host faculty and the UDI team.

Visiting fellows may find more information about accommodation, transport, money and banking, and safety in the Living in Sydney tips - See Link Below

Applications for 2020 (Round 1) are NOW OPEN and will close on 25th December 2019.
